Each year, Bell's PTA makes a commitment to support the school and do so without continuous disruption to our families' lives. This year, we once again have committed to doing *only one major fundraiser, but we have decided to try something different from the magazine sales that Bell has done in the past. Instead, this year, we are cutting out the middle-man and launching a Direct Giving campaign. That means less effort for busy families, and more money going directly into our classrooms. This will be the one and only fundraiser this year, so let's make it a good one! Click this

BURRITO LOVERS, it's not too late! There is still time for your student to qualify for the Burrito Bash! They have until midnight on Sunday, November 17 to load 12 or more VALID email addresses into their Direct Donation Campaign web page. (invalid addresses or other Jeffco student addresses do not count) On November 19th, students who qualify for the Burrito Bash get to skip their morning Bobcat class and enjoy tasty breakfast burritos - our treat! It's our way of saying thanks for getting this fundraiser off to a great start! Remember, if the emails are not in by Sunday night, then students don't qualify. NO EXCEPTIONS!

What You Can Do To Help:

Ask your student to see his or her fundraising page. Make sure it has their photo.

Offer suggestions (and email addresses) of people to include.

Promote your student's fundraising page in social media.

Make a donation if you are able.

Does your company offer corporate matching? Request a matching gift.

Encourage your student to check the Bobcat Teacher Leaderboard and see how their class is doing once the funds start rolling in! We so appreciate your help in making Bell Middle School's first annual Direct Giving Campaign a rip ROARING success!
