IS RECRUITING EDUCATION COMING TO YOUR SCHOOL?

Recruiting education. Every high school in America should provide it, especially at the beginning of the school year.

Monday night, families gathered in the library at Eaton Rapids High School...

Chris Roberson, Former NFL Player

PROGRAM FITS

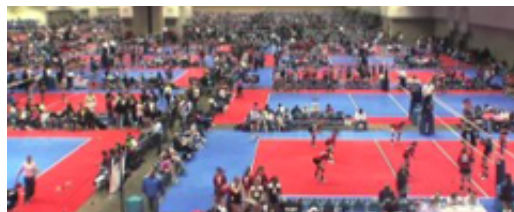

One thing that is often forgotten by many athletes looking to play at the collegiate level is the structure of a college athletic program. In comparison, playing a sport in college correlates more to a high school program than a summer travel team. At the collegiate level, the intensity (and frequency) of practices require far more focus and effort.

When searching for a potential collegiate program, athletes should look at... READ MORE →

THE LIFE OF A CLUB ATHLETE

The day I entered the third grade was the day my sports career would go from rec leagues and tri cities teams to competitive travel sports- for the next 10 years I would...
