

Klein Cain Roots & Family History

Dr. Jim Cain

Klein Cain High School is named after former superintendent, Dr. Jim Cain. He spent thirty-five of his forty-seven years in education in Klein ISD. Dr. Cain started his career in the Klein Family as an Assistant Principal at Benfer Elementary in 1978. He went on to become Klein ISD Superintendent before retiring in 2016. During his tenure as Superintendent, three major bonds, totaling more than one billion dollars, were passed. He began Unite for Understanding Council ('07) to promote respect and understanding to build strong relationships that benefit and enrich our community.

Ulrich Family History

The original Ulrichs who came to Houston in the 1900s were August and Marie Ulrich. They settled across the street from the current Ulrich Intermediate School on the north side of Spring-Cypress Road. Parts of the original home and original acreage is still owned by the family 3 generations later. the original family, three were born to August

The youngest son Herman, is the one who purchased the land on the south side of Spring-Cypress road at the site of Ulrich Intermediate School. Across the road from the original homestead, Herman wanted to begin a dairy cattle business for the family. Herman and his wife Tillie Hildebrandt, had three children who lived all their lives on the new property.

Herman & Tillie Ulrich