ESSENTIAL QUESTION

What does it mean to find your voice? How can we uplift the voices of others?

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

This newly-published teacher resource from the Library of Congress provides ideas for using U.S. Poet Laureate Joy Harjo's Living Nations, Living Words signature project in the classroom. With an emphasis on poetry, and sharing and elevating the voices of living Native poets, the Living Nations, Living Words project consists of two main components: a story map and a poetry collection.

Community Puzzle Mural

Public art can be informative, inspiring and empowering for both artists and audiences. A community puzzle mural has the power to spark dialogue around important issues among teachers, students, families, staff and visitors.

Sounds of Change

This lesson challenges students to analyze and to reflect on messages presented in songs — and to express their own views about important issues addressed in some songs.
