The Plainfield Academy for the Arts and Advanced Studies

November 1, 2022

Dear Parents, Guardians, and Students:

The Plainfield Board of Education is accepting applications for students who are interested in attending the Plainfield Academy for the Arts and Advanced Studies (PAAAS) for the 2023-2024 school year. This program, which encompasses grades 7 to 12, has been uniquely designed for students that are talented in the visual and performing arts as well as students who are seeking a rigorous and challenging curriculum in a college preparatory environment.

The Plainfield Academy for the Arts and Advanced Studies recognizes, values, and strengthens student individuality in academics and artistic areas of interest. Our faculty is committed to working with students on an individualized basis to stimulate and develop their intellect, artistry and creativity. Upon graduating from The Plainfield Academy for the Arts and Advanced Studies, students will be prepared for future matriculation and success in colleges, universities, art institutions, and/or conservatories.

All students who are interested in applying to the Academy are required to complete all sections of this application and must attend an audition and/or interview for consideration in the admission process.

The deadline to submit this completed application to PAAAS is 12 noon on Monday, December 19, 2022. Once applications are reviewed, and applicants have met all of the qualifications, an audition will be scheduled for the first week of February 2023.

Sincerely,

Gregory Sneed
Principal

Aurora J. Hill
Vice-Principal

Audition Process

DANCE

The Dance Audition covers ballet, jazz, and modern techniques. Dancers will be assessed on their technique, musicality, alignment, flexibility, and performance skills. The audition will include a short ballet barre, modern center floor, and jazz across the floor for all interested candidates, followed by individual solos.

Solo criteria – Length is to be two minutes maximum. Solo may be choreographed by the student or another choreographer; choreographer's name must be given. Students must supply their own music on an iPad or iPhone.

Proper attire must be worn for dance auditions:

Proper Attire for Dance Auditions:

Males: T-shirt must be white and fit smoothly, black tights and/or jazz pants, ballet shoes.

Females: Tan footless or convertible tights, black leotard, pink or skin tone ballet shoes, hair must be off the face and neck in a ponytail or bun.

THEATER

Students are required to memorize a two-minute monologue from a published play or monologue book and be prepared to perform it live before a panel of judges. All theater applicants are also required to sing a song of their choice acapella. The evaluation places more emphasis on the monologue than the song performance.

In addition to your monologue and acapella singing performance, you may be given an improvisation and/or cold reading. You will be evaluated on your speech, voice, creativity, physicality and character identification.

Lastly, there will be a brief interview component of your audition.

What type of monologue should I prepare?

Answer: Please prepare a 1½ to 2-minute contemporary dramatic or comedic monologue from a published play or monologue book. The monologue should feature a character close to your own age and temperament. Avoid playing characters with dialects or impediments unless you have mastered them. Lastly, DO NOT select monologues from classical works such as Shakespeare.

Can I prepare something I wrote myself or something that is not from a play?

Answer: NO. Do not select pieces that you have written yourself or passages from novels, short stories, poems, or screenplays.

The Plainfield Academy for the Arts and Advanced Studies

Theater- continued

How should I dress?

Answer: Dress in your normal attire, but make sure your clothes are comfortable enough to move in. Avoid jewelry and costumes.

Where can I find and/or purchase suggested plays or monologue books?

Answer: Please visit your local or school library, bookstore, or PAAAS website for suggested monologues. As for bookstores equipped with suitable plays and monologues, we recommend the Drama Book Shop (250 W. 40th St., between 7th and 8th Avenues, New York City. (212-944-0595).

VISUAL ART

The Visual Art audition process includes the submission of the applicant's portfolio. It must have the following:

Observational Art:
